ALLEN ON TRAIL OF OVERHANGING TREE BREAKS MAN'S LEG GARBAGE COLLECTORS

Thos. H. Allen, commissioner of the engineering department, has been doing a little quiet sleuthing, and has caught up with a number of negro drivers of parbage carts, who will be given some good advice at once by the superintendent of that department, the price of the river bank, catching Wrights left leg. After first aid had been administered, Wright was placed aboard a Memphis bound train, which the ambulance of J. T. Hinton & Son met Friday and took him to the house.

me all the time. Sometimes the pains were so severe that death would have been a relief, says Mrs. Lilly Forbish, 149 Overton street, Memphis, Tenn. "My sleep was frequently disturbed by fits of coughing, my strength left and I lost flesh until I was a mere skeleton of my former self. I was simply down and out, and the doctors wanted to perform some kind of operation and assured me that I could not live unless I submitted to it. When I had about lost hope I learned of Lung-Vita, now called L.-V, and began using it. Its effects were well nigh miraculous, and I gained steadily. The cough got better and in a comparatively short time L.-V had made a new woman of me. It has been two years since I took L.-V and today I am a well weman and bear no renemblance to my former self."

Many critics consider Yansel and Roszika Dolly the most delightful stars in musical comedy—certainly they are the youngest. In selecting the cast to support the Dolly sisters it is said the producers have shown exquisite taste and unerring judgment—and they have also assembled an ensemble of girls radiating individuality, youth, all right. The act is a breezy dance turn and the LaVars are hard-working, capable artists. Several changes add to the offering. Fred Pisano and Kitty Bingham start alow but get their audience and go off leaving the house in an uproar. Theirs is a slapstick comedy act that is bound to get you. Harry Freedman and Jark Lewis open by Little Richard Hasslet, son of Mr. and of Mrs. Joe Hasslet, 577 North Second is street, still is battling bravely for his life at the General hospital, where he was taken late Wednesday afternoon, when he suffered severe burns after his Indian chief suit caught fire as he idanced around a biase in his hack qurd. The lad's condition Friday morning was critical, his temperature registering at 104 degrees. Richard, who is two years of age, was severely burned about the face, chest and legs. Preedman and Jack Lewis open by shouting something about 'put music anywhere but next door. They'd better fake their own gdvice and give up singing or put it elsewhere than on the stage. Carl and Emma Frabel open the bill with a wire act that is distinctive in its speed and the agility of the team on the silver thread. The man's closing trick is a dandy one. There's nothing slow about the chaiter handed out by Jack and Tommy Welr. One or two of the cracks pulled by the boy in blackface are a bit overdone, possibly bordering too much on the risque. The feature film takes one to South Africa and the diamond fields. Madlaine Traverse is the star and upholds her reputation as a heroine in a well-woven love plot. The title is 'Lost' beauty and gowned in the small corrections.

F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest have standardized musical comedy in America and it is generally agreed the standard is a high one, with such breazy predecessors of "Oh. Look." as "Nobody Home." Very Good Eddie." Oh. Boy. "Leave it to Jane," Oh. Lady. Lady. and "Oh. My Dear." However, a well-known New York critic adds. None of these successes have anything on 'Oh. Look, which is a show redolent of today, a show altogether pleasing, with the Dolly sisters as twin twinkling stars.
